

11th Apollo INTERNATIONAL CLINICAL NUTRITION UPDATE - 2019

Translating Evidence Based Knowledge to Clinical Nutrition Practice

21st & 22nd September 2019.
Pride Hotel & Convention Centre, Indore, India

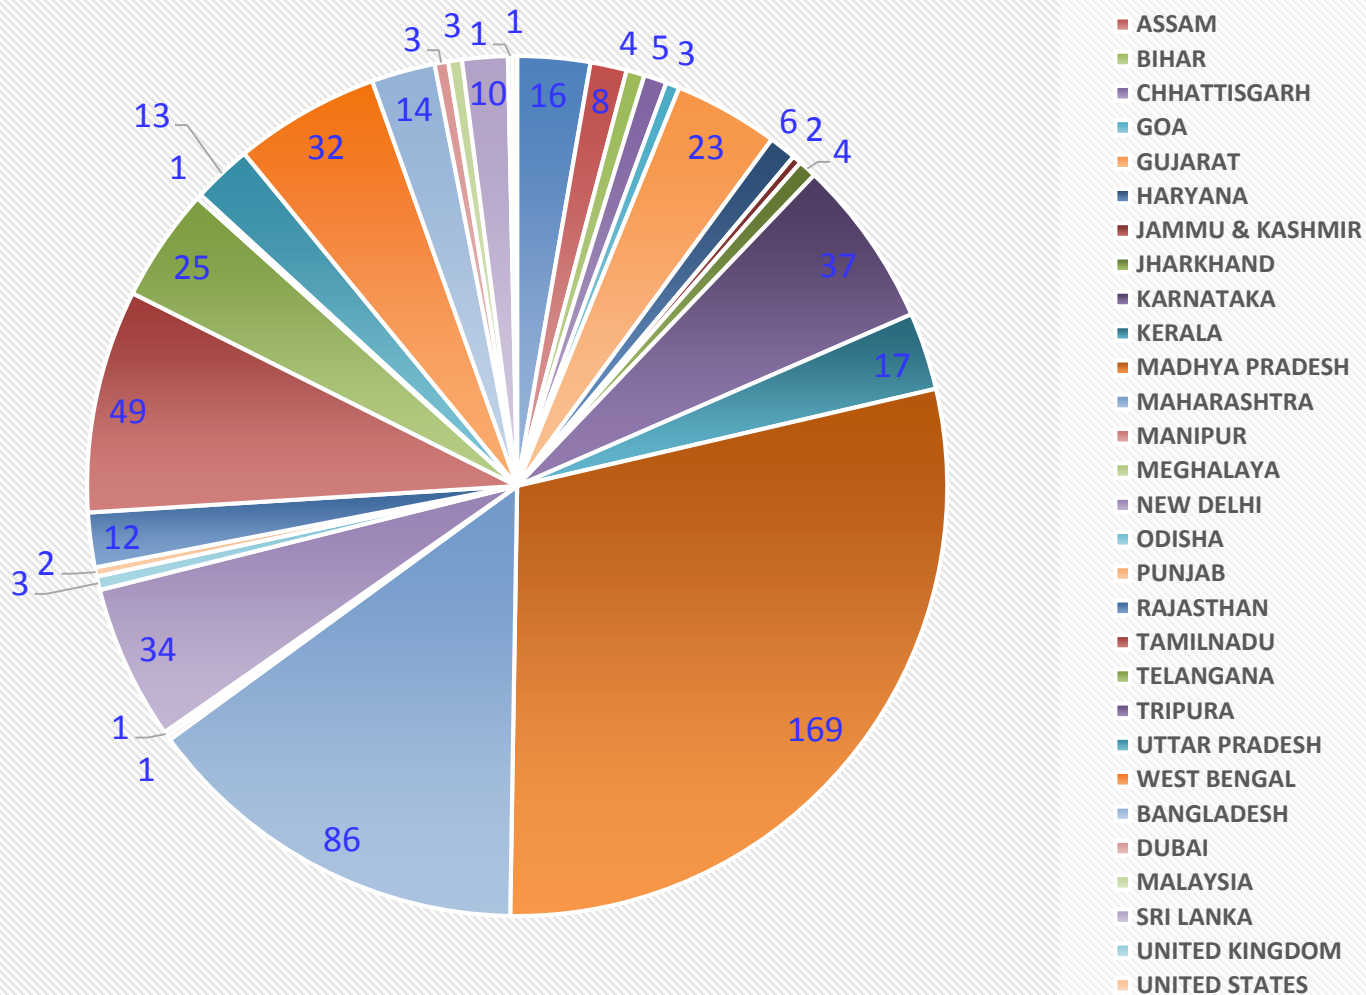

Excellence in Clinical Nutrition

Over 600 participants from 7 countries

AICNU 2019 - 600 Participants

Inauguration

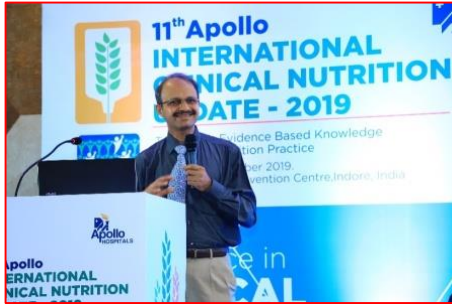

Scientific Sessions

Scientific Sessions

Special Interest Group Session on Pediatric and Renal Nutrition

Networking

Feedback a few....

It was indeed a pleasure, meeting you all. Let's take this academic relationship to a higher level. Dr. Snigdha Misra

I had absolutely incredible time at AICNU. Thank you so much for this experience. Ms. Jana Sremamakova

I had a good time sharing my experience and knowledge. I'm glad the event was successful and that everyone benefitted from it. Dr. Luqman Mazlan

I enjoyed every bit of the conference that I attended. Very well organized academic program indeed! Dr. Shobha Chamania

All facilities is good – Ms. Rupali Zikiwal, Indore

Weight Loss – Brief Topic and Physical activity role

Sports Nutrition – Divya Parmar

Disease based topic – Nujhat Manzoor, Dhaka

All facilities were awesome, knowledge was grateful to gain – Niti Nagar, Indore

Try to provide some hand-outs of the visual slides for references. Rest was all up to the mark – Manasi Gautam, Bhopal

I am feeling very great to attend this program, I will wish to this group coming soon once again – Ankita Choubey

Physical exercise along with clinical nutrition practice at the time of illness

Case based discussion will be more helpful

Team Dietetics

