18th APOLLO INTERNATIONAL
CLINICAL NUTRITION UPDATE

"BRIDGING SCIENCE AND PRACTICE IN CLINICAL NUTRITION"

21ST to 23RD AUGUST 2026, HOTEL RADISSON BLU, GUWAHATI, INDIA

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

WELCOME MESSAGE

Greetings from the AICNU Organizing Committee

We are delighted to announce the 18th Apollo International Clinical Nutrition Update (AICNU) and the 4th Residential Colloquium, to be hosted in the scenic city of Guwahati, Assam, India, in August 2026.

AICNU 2026 aims to provide a dynamic platform for clinical dietitians, nutritionists, researchers, healthcare professionals, educators and students to engage in meaningful exchange of knowledge, research, and innovations in clinical nutrition. The conference seeks to bridge existing skill gaps, promote evidence-based practices, and foster global collaboration among experts, researchers, and practitioners. Through this initiative, AICNU 2026 aspires to support professional growth by facilitating discussions on the latest advancements and best practices in clinical nutrition.

Looking ahead, AICNU 2026 will offer invaluable networking opportunities, enabling participants to connect with peers, mentors, and potential collaborators. These interactions will encourage the exchange of ideas, the development of partnerships, and the exploration of new research frontiers. AICNU's enduring commitment to knowledge sharing continues to strengthen nutritional care and elevate professional practice.

The theme for AICNU 2026 – “Bridging Science and Practice in Clinical Nutrition” - will highlight the latest research, innovations, and practical applications in clinical nutrition, while also addressing ongoing challenges and exploring solutions to optimize patient outcomes. We are pleased to share the first announcement of AICNU 2026 - 18th Edition, and invite you to block the dates for this exciting event.

Regular updates regarding the colloquium will be posted on our website: www.aicnu.org. We sincerely thank you for your continued support of AICNU, your dedication to the field of clinical nutrition, and most importantly, your commitment to improving the lives of your patients.
